

March 13 2013

Chronicle Herald

Eastern Shore fish farm bid rejected

BY BRUCE ERSKINE BUSINESS REPORTER

Ottawa: Shoal Bay plan posed moderate risk to wild salmon

The province has rejected Snow Island Salmon Inc.'s application to build a fish farm in Shoal Bay.

(...)Snow Island said in a news release that its Scottish parent company, Loch Duart, will need to determine if it will maintain its operations in the province in light of the government's decision.

Read the whole article here:

<http://thechronicleherald.ca/business/969277-eastern-shore-fish-farm-bid-rejected>